

Thank you for subscribing to my newsletter

I dropped the ball on the October newsletter. That happens sometimes. It is important to allow ourselves to make mistakes, fail, and try again. I am so glad you are here!

Welcome to Rooted Sonshine. Your place to Learn & Practice building vibrant communities, one connection at a time.

Volunteer events are the core of Friends of the Bluff's efforts to preserve and protect the bluff. Join HERE.

Say 'Hello' to . . .

Friends of the Bluff, a sustainable, community-supported organization that - through education, outreach, and direct conservation efforts - ensures that the Bluff will always be a protected, healthy, and natural ecosystem, accessible to all who wish to respectfully enjoy it.

Bringing the mission to life . . .

Their mission statement reads, "As Friends of the Bluff, we are stewards of Spokane's High Drive Bluff Park. Through volunteer efforts, community partnerships, and education, we conserve the area in a natural, sustainable state for multiple users who respect the resource, each other, and wildlife."

Partnering with businesses and sponsors, educators and volunteers, Friends of the Bluff is doing the (dirty) work! They are a Firewise Community that removes dog waste and teaches the community how to manage noxious weeds (among lots more).

The difference it makes . . .

It's not only about enjoying the outdoors and it doesn't stop at education and conservation. Exercising true partnership, Friends of the Bluff encourages the community to patronize their sponsors and partners including Wheel Sport, Rocket Market, Karma Cultivate, and Craven's Coffee.
